

FEATURED AUTHOR

Beverly Zimler, author of
*My Pet Cow Florica

About the Book

My Pet Cow Florica is a book about the author's mother's experience of being raised as an Orthodox Jewish girl on a small farm in pre-WWII Hungary, and her life changing affection for her beloved pet cow.

About the Author

Beverly I. Zimler was born, raised, and educated in New York City. She attended Art and Design High School, and Manhattanville and Queens Colleges, and has taught the subjects of art and Special Education in the New York City school system for twenty-three years. She exhibits life drawings, loves poetry, literature, and films, enjoys knitting and crocheting, cooking and gardening, piano, tennis, swimming, and photography. Beverly is happiest spending quality time talking and laughing with her fascinating family and friends.

Excerpt

This book is my mother's story of love and loss which I learned as a young girl at her knee. It is dedicated to the memory of my grandparents, Bertha and Mendel and their children who perished in the Holocaust.