

FEATURED AUTHOR

MaryEllen McDermott-Campbell, author of
A Miracle for Christmas

About the Book

It's Christmastime in Heaven, so why is Jesus so unhappy? His birthday is just a few days away. Who is the special angel and what is his secret plan? Follow the little angel through the story and discover the Heavenly plan, that hopefully, will make Jesus smile again.

About the Author

MaryEllen McDermott-Campbell is a nurse who lives in Coram, New York, with her husband. She has three grown children and one grandchild. MaryEllen has had a longtime love for children's books, especially those with unique storylines. A Miracle for Christmas is her first publication.

Testimonials

"I loved your book."

—J. Graham, Teacher, Three Village Schools, Stony Brook, New York

"Your story is inspiring and wonderful. I think it would be a great Christian children's book."

—E. Gurhing, Teacher, Three Village Schools, Stony Brook, New York

". . . A Miracle for Christmas, a noteworthy and delightful picture book for those ages whose minds and hearts are constantly receptive to imagining, fantasizing, and learning from pictorial experiences. The script lines are musical and move rhythmically in accordance with motor skills at this young age."

—M. Staton, Editor, Scythe Publications, Nashville, Tennessee